

Elleman, Robert

From: Elleman, Robert
Sent: Monday, February 08, 2016 10:31 AM
To: SWAB Christopher
Subject: RE: Portland metals in the news 2/5/16

No, these are great, thank you.

From: SWAB Christopher [mailto:SWAB.Christopher@deq.state.or.us]
Sent: Monday, February 08, 2016 9:35 AM
To: Elleman, Robert <Elleman.Robert@epa.gov>
Subject: FW: Portland metals in the news 2/5/16

Rob – Let me know if you do not want to receive these updates.

Chris

From: DEQ Communications
Sent: Friday, February 05, 2016 12:18 PM
To: DEQintheNews; *DEQ - Staff Statewide; *DEQ - Communications Team
Subject: Portland metals in the news 2/5/16

DEQ, Oregon Health Authority, Multnomah County Health Department

Portland metals in the news

Friday, Feb. 5, 2016

This is a special edition of DEQ in the News to capture news about preliminary air quality monitoring data showing high levels of cadmium and arsenic in the air near Southeast 22nd Ave. and Powell Boulevard in Portland.

Oregon environmental regulators find air pollution at glass manufacturer

Register Guard via Associated Press, 2/5/16

Air at SE Portland schools to be tested after toxins detected

KGW-TV, 2/4/16

Oregon regulators suspected SE Portland polluter months before telling public

Oregonian, 2/4/16

Soil Near Bullseye Glass Contains Arsenic and Cadmium—And Other Things Officials Told Parents Thursday

The Mercury, 2/4/16

Portland Heavy Metals Emissions Linked To Glass Facility

OPB Earthfix, 2/4/16